POLICY TYPE: ENDS

1.0 MISSION STATEMENT

Dwelling Place improves the lives of people by creating quality affordable housing, providing essential support services and serving as a catalyst for neighborhood revitalization and community building and engagement.

1.1 DWELLING PLACE AS COLLABORATOR IN NEIGHBORHOOD REVITALIZATION AND COMMUNITY BUILDING AND ENGAGEMENT

Dwelling Place will work closely with recognized leadership in neighborhood organizations and institutions to understand neighbor and community needs and design neighborhood revitalization programs and community building and engagement programs accordingly. Dwelling Place will seek the support and participation of at least one community/neighborhood partner in every major neighborhood or community initiative.

1.2 CUSTOMER SERVICE PROGRAMS

Dwelling Place will design programs to improve the quality of life for individuals and the neighborhoods in which they reside. The primary outcome measure for this end will be an annual random survey of residents to determine satisfaction with the quality of Dwelling Place housing and related services. A 90% overall satisfaction rate shall be the minimum acceptable level.

1.3 COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Dwelling Place will advocate for maximum housing opportunity. The primary outcome measure for this end will be the establishment and monitoring of minimum housing production objectives.

2.0 GOVERNING COMMITMENT

The Board of Dwelling Place is accountable to all its stakeholders, including neighborhoods and communities where services are offered. The Board is responsible for fulfilling its mission legally, ethically, and prudently.

2.1 GOVERNING PHILOSOPHIES

The Dwelling Place Board of Directors recognizes that it has dual responsibilities to represent the interests of the community, as well as the interests of the organization. In upholding these responsibilities, the Board will govern with a steadfast focus on its mission: Dwelling Place improves the lives of people by creating quality affordable housing, providing essential support services and serving as a catalyst for neighborhood revitalization, community building and engagement.

The Board will:

- Practice collegiality, cooperation and mutual support of each other's talents, ideas and contributions.
- Remain committed to ongoing learning about the organization's governance and operations.

- Respect and appreciate inclusivity and diversity of ideas and individual backgrounds.
- Exercise financial stewardship and accountability.
- Support a board culture conducive to accomplishing its responsibilities.
- Take the time for many voices to be heard, but then speak and act with one voice.
- Make meaningful use of meeting time through individual board preparation, respect for the agenda and role of the Board Chair, upholding policy making principles and a decision-making model.

2.2 RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD

The purpose of the Board of Directors of Dwelling Place is to plan and ensure the future of the organization, while fulfilling its mission: Dwelling Place improves the lives of people by creating quality affordable housing, providing essential support services and serving as a catalyst for neighborhood revitalization, community building and engagement.

The Board is responsible for:

- Trusteeship for the mission, vision and values of Dwelling Place.
- Fiduciary responsibility for the organization.
- An on-going process for selecting, supporting, and evaluating the Chief Executive Officer.
- An on-going process for strategic planning, monitoring and evaluating the organizations' programs and services.
- A policy framework that guides the organization.
- Creating and maintaining positive linkages with the community.
- Commitment to fund development efforts and financial stewardship for the organization.
- An inclusive and diverse Board membership.

2.3 INDIVIDUAL BOARD MEMBER RESPONSIBILITIES

Each board member of Dwelling Place brings to the Board his or her own particular skills and sphere of influence. The role of the board member is to effectively serve those for whom the organization's programs are designed. Board members' overall focus is on the mission and its impact on the individuals and communities served.

Specifically, board members are expected to:
